Day 03 — Napaling Reef, Loboc River Cruise, Tarsier Sanctuary & Chocolate Hills

Accommodation: Panglao Island - Bohol

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

- Napaling Reef is located on the northern side of Panglao Island. Experience the breathtaking sardine run. Dive into the water and witness thousands of sardines swimming in mesmerizing, synchronized patterns. The best time to visit is between 6:00 AM and 10:00 AM. (Optional GoPro Camera to capture amazing underwater footage of the sardine run.)
- Midday tour of the Bohol countryside on board a traditional cruise on the Loboc River with a buffet lunch onboard. View of the enchanting tropical forests, coconut palms, and mangroves are typical for this river cruise.
- Afternoon tour the Bohol Tarsier Conservation Area to see Philippine Tarsier (Carlito syrichta), among the smallest primates in the world. (Conservation note: No touching, no loud noises, and no flash photography.)
- Finish this amazing day with a visit to the iconic Chocolate Hills in Bohol. During the dry season, the grass covering these hills turns brown, giving them the appearance of chocolate mounds - hence the name "Chocolate Hills", each ranging in height from 30 to 50 meters. The viewing decks at the Chocolate Hills Complex require climbing a few stairs.

What are the travel requirements?

- Passport valid for at least 6 months from the start date of the tour.
- Philippines allow visa free entry for tourists from most countries. Please refer to the Philippine Visa Policy for various nationalities here.
- Health insurance valid for the duration of the journey, preferably "cash free" policies.
- Electronic Travel Authorization is required for boarding a flight to the Philippines. Please register 72 hours before the flight here.

Who can travel?

- Adult passengers from most countries.
- Minors must be accompanied by an immediate relative/guardian.

What is the best period to travel to the Philippines?

The ideal time to explore the Philippines is from November to June, when the weather is generally dry and pleasant. From July to October, rain showers and the occasional Pacific typhoon are more likely, but travelers may enjoy lower rates and smaller crowds during this off-peak season.

Are credit cards accepted in the Philippines?

Yes, credit cards are widely accepted in the Philippines, especially in major cities and popular tourist areas. However, cash remains the primary method of payment in many locations, particularly in rural or remote regions, so it is advisable to carry Philippine Pesos for purchases at such sites.

Can cash be carried into the Philippines?

Travelers may bring up to PHP 50,000 in Philippine Pesos and up to USD 10,000 (or equivalent) in foreign currency without special permission. Amounts exceeding USD 10,000 must be declared on a Foreign Currency Declaration Form (e-CDF) to the Bureau of Customs (BOC) upon arrival. Failure to declare large sums can result in confiscation and penalties. Read more...

How much does this package cost?
