Day wise program structure

A Visayan Dream - an intimate dance of culture, enchanted islands & spectacular beauty

Day 01 — Arrival in Manila, Airport Pick-up and Hotel Check-in, World War 2 memorial

Accommodation: Manila

Meals Included: Dinner

- Welcome to Manila, the “Pearl of the Orient,” a vibrant gateway to the Philippines’ stunning islands, pristine beaches, and remarkable natural wonders. This bustling metropolis blends centuries of history with modern life. Spanish colonial architecture stands alongside contemporary skyscrapers, reflecting a city that is both timeless and dynamic.
- A visit to the World War II Memorial for the Fallen Heroes offers a solemn pause amid the city’s energy. Set on peaceful, beautifully kept grounds, the memorial honors thousands of soldiers who fought bravely in the Pacific theater.
- Manila’s streets and markets then unfold with sights, sounds, and aromas that capture the essence of local life. Cultural landmarks, museums, and centuries-old churches reveal the depth of the nation’s heritage. By evening, the city pulses with lively nightlife, contemporary dining, and entertainment.

Day 07 — Flight to Manila, Binondo Chinatown, Jones Bridge, Intramuros & Okada Fountains

Accommodation: Manila

Meals Included: Breakfast, Lunch & Dinner

- Flight to Manila.
- Begin a tour of the historic Chinatown, recorded as the first in the world (established 1594), wandering through alleyways alive with bustling commercial activity. This district, also known as Binondo, exudes a vibrant blend of culture, history, and cuisine.
- The Binondo Church, a minor basilica and the national shrine of St. Lorenzo Ruiz, stands as a symbol of faith and devotion.
- The famed Binondo Food Crawl along Ongpin Street offers a flavorful immersion into local culinary traditions.
- A walk over Jones Bridge connects Chinatown with Intramuros, the walled city built by Spanish colonizers in 1521. The bridge, constructed in the 1910s to replace the historic Bridge of Spain (Puente de España), was opened to the public in 1921. The original structure was destroyed during the Battle of Manila in February 1945 by retreating Japanese troops and later rebuilt.
- Within Intramuros, Fort Santiago houses the imprisonment site of national hero José Rizal, while the San Agustin Church, a UNESCO World Heritage Site, stands as the only building to survive the Battle of Manila.
- The Manila Cathedral, a minor basilica inside Intramuros, has been destroyed and rebuilt eight times, reflecting the city's enduring spirit.

What is the best period to travel to the Philippines?

The ideal time to explore the Philippines is from November to June, when the weather is generally dry and pleasant. From July to October, rain showers and the occasional Pacific typhoon are more likely, but travelers may enjoy lower rates and smaller crowds during this off-peak season.

Are credit cards accepted in the Philippines?

Yes, credit cards are widely accepted in the Philippines, especially in major cities and popular tourist areas. However, cash remains the primary method of payment in many locations, particularly in rural or remote regions, so it is advisable to carry Philippine Pesos for purchases at such sites.

Can cash be carried into the Philippines?

Travelers may bring up to PHP 50,000 in Philippine Pesos and up to USD 10,000 (or equivalent) in foreign currency without special permission. Amounts exceeding USD 10,000 must be declared on a Foreign Currency Declaration Form (e-CDF) to the Bureau of Customs (BOC) upon arrival. Failure to declare large sums can result in confiscation and penalties. Read more...

How much does this package cost?

- The cost of a tour package is a function of various parameters; viz, class of accommodation, period of travel, meal plan etc.
