Tour FAQs

Know more about this tour

1. "Operator hand to hand protocol": what is it?

The Operator hand-to-hand protocol is a service approach where guests are personally handed over from one operator or local contact to the next throughout the journey. This ensures that travelers do not need to worry about finding drivers, guides, or local contacts at each stop. While this service comes at an additional cost, it guarantees a smooth, hassle-free, and fully enjoyable tour experience.

2. Who can travel on this tour?

The tour is open to adult passengers from all countries. Minors must be accompanied by an immediate family member or legal guardian.

3. What are the travel requirements?

Travelers must have a valid passport with at least six months' validity from the start date of the tour. An entry permit or visa may be required depending on nationality, in accordance with Madagascar's visa policy. Travelers are also strongly advised to have health insurance valid for the duration of the journey, preferably a "cash-free" policy for seamless medical assistance if needed.

4. How safe is Madagascar?

Madagascar is generally very safe for travelers. There are no large carnivores or poisonous reptiles, making outdoor exploration safe. The local population is friendly, welcoming, and easygoing. While public transportation exists, it is often irregular and is not recommended for tourists on short holidays; private transfers or guided transport are preferred.

5. Are credit cards accepted in Madagascar?

Credit cards are not widely accepted throughout Madagascar. While some hotels and larger establishments may accept VISA, many vendors prefer cash payments. Other cards, such as MasterCard, American Express, and Diners Club, are accepted only at a limited number of locations. Travelers are advised to carry sufficient local currency for purchases and small transactions.

6. Should cash be carried in local currency?

Yes, it is advisable to carry at least USD 100 in local currency (Malagasy Ariary). As of April 2024, the exchange rate is approximately 4,500 MGA = 1 USD. The best place to exchange money is upon arrival at the airport, and our team can assist you with this process.

7. How much cash can be carried into and out of Madagascar?

Visitors and residents may bring up to 400,000 MGA in local currency and an unlimited amount of foreign currency. Amounts exceeding EUR 7,500 must be declared to the customs authorities. Similarly, travelers may take up to 400,000 MGA in local currency out of Madagascar and an unlimited amount of foreign currency, provided a written declaration is submitted at customs.

8. What are the other important entry regulations in Madagascar?

Items allowed duty-free:

- 500 cigarettes or 25 cigars or 500 g of tobacco
- 1 bottle of alcoholic beverages

Prohibited items:

- Illegal drugs
- Weapons, explosives, ammunition, knives, and other deadly weapons
- Plants or plant products without prior permission
- Meat and meat products
- Pets or animal products without prior permission
- Electronic equipment
- Counterfeit money or goods
- Pornographic materials

Restricted items:

- Guns and ammunition intended for re-export require an export permit from the local "Chef de Province."
- Perfumes are subject to duty regulations and cannot be imported duty-free.
- Fruit and vegetables must be declared, and an entry permit is required.
- Protected plant species and materials are prohibited.
- Animals must undergo a sanitary inspection upon arrival and have a valid veterinary certificate confirming good health and absence of contagious diseases. Dogs over three months and cats over six months must be vaccinated against rabies (within specific timeframes) prior to entry.

9. Are foreign insurance policies accepted in Madagascar?

Yes, foreign insurance policies are accepted and it is a mandatory requirement to travel on this tour. Travelers are advised to carry proof of valid coverage for the duration of the journey.

10. How much does this package cost?

The cost of the tour depends on several factors, including the class of accommodation, travel dates, and meal plans. Please submit a booking request, and we will provide a personalized price offer for your consideration.
